

FeaturePak™ Trade Association Membership Application

As stated in its Articles of Incorporation, the FeaturePak™ Trade Association (FPTA) is a California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation that aims to bring about the existence of a range of approaches to modular expansion of computer-on-module baseboards, single-board computers, and proprietary embedded electronics by establishing open industry specifications for such approaches. The FPTA's efforts may include, but are not limited to, promoting the use and understanding of its hardware standards, providing a focal point for communicating the benefits of its standards to the industry, and encouraging the advancement of a multivendor ecosystem associated with its standards.

The FPTA offers three levels of membership with varying benefits, as tabulated below.
